A JAILHOUSE LAWYER'S MANUAL PUBLICATIONS

What publications are available?

The Columbia Human Rights Law Review offers four publications designed to explain the legal rights of prisoners and help prisoners navigate the justice system to secure those rights. All of our publications are softcover books that are stamped "direct from publisher" when shipped. Due to institutional restrictions, we cannot offer any materials from other sources or publishers.

A Jailhouse Lawyer's Manual* (JLM), Eleventh Edition (2017) – The main volume of the JLM is a 1368-page book containing basic self-help litigation information, including information on conducting legal research, seeking legal representation, choosing a court, and filing a lawsuit. The main JLM also contains specific chapters on habeas corpus, parole, DNA, the Prison Litigation Reform Act, religious freedom in prison, infectious diseases, mental disabilities, the rights of LGBT prisoners, and more. The JLM does NOT contain information on substantive law (such as the elements of crimes or degrees of a crime). It covers both federal and state law, with an emphasis on New York State law.

JLM Louisiana State Supplement* (2018) – The Louisiana State Supplement is a 387-page supplement to the Eleventh Edition of the JLM, containing information specific to prisoners navigating the justice process in Louisiana courts and institutions.

JLM Immigration & Consular Access Supplement* (2018) – The Immigration & Consular Access Supplement is a 110-page supplement to the main JLM containing information about the immigration consequences of criminal convictions for people who are not U.S. citizens, as well as information about the right of non-U.S. citizens to access their countries' consulates.

JLM Texas Supplement* (2013) – The Texas Supplement is a 392-page supplement to the Tenth Edition of the JLM containing information specific to prisoners navigating the justice process in Texas courts and institutions.

How much does it cost?

JLM publications may be ordered together, or each book may be ordered separately. All prices include the cost of priority shipping. Payments may be made by check or money order and must be received in full before an order can be processed. Overpayments will be considered donations and processed as such. If you are ordering for a prisoner or if you are a prisoner, please follow the prisoner pricing.

For non-inmates, organizations, or institutions: The Eleventh Edition of the main JLM is $140; the Louisiana State Supplement is $100; the Texas Supplement is $70; and the Immigration & Consular Access Supplement is $50.

For prisoners: We are able to provide a significant discount to prisoners due to the generosity of donors and alumni. For incarcerated persons, the Eleventh Edition of the main JLM is $30; the Louisiana State Supplement is $25; the Texas Supplement is $20; and the Immigration & Consular Access Supplement is $15.

Regrettably, the law prohibits us from providing any legal advice to prisoners. If you would like to use the JLM but are unable to purchase one, please inquire with your prison library to see if they will order one. We do not have used JLMs available and cannot guarantee the availability of older editions. We apologize for any inconvenience.

How do I place an order?

To place an order, complete the order form below and send it to Columbia Human Rights Law Review, Attn: JLM Order, 435 W. 116th St., New York, NY 10027 along with a check or money order for the proper amount. Please print clearly and legibly!

Please make your check or money order payable to Columbia Human Rights Law Review. Unfortunately, we are unable to accept postage stamps or credit cards as payment. Overpayments will be considered donations and processed as such. If you are ordering for a prisoner, please follow the prisoner pricing.

Please keep a record of your order, especially if you pay by money order, in case there is a problem with receiving or processing your order. The Columbia Human Rights Law Review (and the JLM) is not responsible for any lost or delayed mail or payments.

Please inform us of any restrictions on incoming mail that your facility may have (for example, no padded envelopes, or first class mail only). The Columbia Human Rights Law Review (and the JLM) is not responsible for any delays resulting from your facility's refusal to accept our delivery of the JLM, nor for any deliveries of the JLM that are lost or destroyed.

Due to the nature of the institutional mail systems, we request that you allow up to eight weeks from the date of your order for delivery. Because our office is student-run, your order may not be processed as quickly over school breaks.

Important Update (March 22, 2020): Due to COVID-19, we are not able to get mail at our usual address (435 W. 116th St., New York, NY 10027). We are setting up a new temporary mailing address for all JLM orders. We will add the new address here as soon as it is available.

Expect delivery delays: Due to COVID-19, please expect additional delays in delivery of the JLM. We are working as hard as we can—with a limited team—to respond to orders of the JLM as soon as possible. Thank you for understanding.
