FREE CHAPTER REQUEST

The Columbia Human Rights Law Review offers up to three (3) free chapters or appendices of the 13th Edition of A Jailhouse Lawyer's Manual to incarcerated individuals who cannot afford the publication. At this time, we cannot provide free full copies of the Manual, but we will continue to fulfill requests for up to three free chapters. Please review the list of JLM chapters and indicate up to three you would like mailed to you. (Chapters 1 and 2 are automatically included with all requests, so you do not need to list them.)

To request your free chapters of the 13th Edition, email the form to jlm.board.mail@gmail.com or complete and return the form below to:

Columbia Human Rights Law Review
Attn: A Jailhouse Lawyer's Manual
435 W. 116th St.
New York, NY 10027

Please print clearly and include BOTH the chapter numbers and titles. Requests listing more than three chapters will be returned for resubmission. Let us know of any mail restrictions at your facility (for example, no padded envelopes or first-class mail only). We are unable to re-ship free chapters returned to us.

For additional access, check with your facility's library or ask a friend or family member to visit our website, where all 13th Edition chapters are available for free download: <https://jlm.law.columbia.edu>
